CAPITULATION IMMINENT

Armistice Terms for Turkey Agreed Upon.

London, Oct. 30.—Capitulation of Turkey is imminent, and the armistice terms have already been prepared, it was learned on high authority.

Versailles, Oct. 30.—It was anticipated today that the armistice terms to Germany will be similar to those offered Bulgaria, although extra precautions will be necessary and there may be some harsher clauses.

The interallied conference is understood to have already agreed on the main political points of the armistice.

The terms must be severe, it was agreed in authoriative circles, because Germany began the war, the renewal of which must be impossible.

Col. E. M. House, representing the United States, has called on President Poincare and conferred with other French leaders. He also has received Greek Premier Venizelos and the Greek minister to France.

WREAKS BRUTAL REVENGE

Stranger Denudes Child and Hurls Her Into Excavation.

Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—In revenge for being thrown out of a restaurant, a man unknown to the police stripped Margaret, the 5-year-old daughter of Benajmin Harris, the proprietor, and threw her into an excavation at Third and Mechanic streets, Camden. The girl was found in a stupor, and covered with mud by boys, and was taken to Cooper Hospital. When it was found she had not been harmed she was returned to her home.

After the stranger was thrown out of the restaurant for using offensive anguage the girl disappeared. Her mother was told that she had been seen in charge of a man hurrying along Mechanic street and search revealed her plight.

HOMES REGISTRATION

Branch of This Government Service Opened Here to Meet Housing Conditions Occasioned by War—Committee of Chamber of Commerce to Co-operate in Work.

A branch of the United States Homes Registration Service has been organized in this city with offices at the Chamber of Commerce. This forms one of a chain of registries being organized throughout the country to meet in part the housing needs occasioned by conditions such as exist in this city on account of the war. These registries are operated under the direction of the Bureau of Industrial Housing and Transportation of the Department of Labor.

During the month of September Mr. St. John of the Industrial Housing and Transportation Department visited Alexandria and met with the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber pledged its co-operation with the government in all work to meet the pressing emergency. The following committee on housing was appointed:

Gardner L. Boothe, chairman; Judge S. G. Brent, Carroll Pierce, H. R. Burke, R. L. Payne, J. Y. Williams, John T Harrison, Frank R. Higgins, Robt. S. Jones, John G. Graham, Wm. H. Sweeney, T. E. Dyson, A. D. Brockett, Mrs. T. C. Howard, Miss Mary Lindsey, Miss Emma M. Giles, Miss Katherine Waller and Mrs. D. J. Howe.

This committee forms a nucleus of the present War Registry which is now representative of the best interests of Alexandria. There will be but one room registry in the city of Alexandria, the War Camp Community Service and the United States Employment Service having merged their lists with the new registry. This was essential to avoid duplication or overhauling.

With the Liberty Loan Drive gloriously finished and the influenza almost finished, the time has come when Alexandria must plan to meet the growing demands of labor being brought to this city. The cry of the shipyard is for rooms, and now that the land has been cleared for the Torpedo Assembling Plant, the construction of that building will be rapidly proceeded with and this city must make arrangements to take care of approximately one thousand men who will work on the building. After its completion two thousand workers, the greater number being superskilled men will have to be provided for. It is a patriotic duty of every home in the city of Alexandria with one or more spare rooms, to immediately list them with J. T. Preston, the manager of the new registry. There is a crying demand for single rooms, double rooms, light house keeping apartments and vacant houses, all of which should be listed. Those buildings having unused lofts, stores with unused upper stories, are very desirable for listing. It will be necessary for this city to make habitable every building for the incoming and increasing army of industrial workers. Every man and woman on the firing line needs, and has the right to demand, the backing of the people at home. The munitions of war must be supplied by workers in shipyards, airplane plants and munitions plants. These industries are located in this city and no citizen has the right to keep an unoccupied room at this time.

The old rooming list of the Chamber of Commerce is to be revised and those having formerly listed rooms, as well as those who have never considerd listing the available rooms in their homes, are asked to immediately report to the United States Homes Registration Service what accommodations they can furnish for war workers.

GOOD HEALTH RECORD

No Deaths During Past Twenty-four Hours.

Not a single death in this city during the past twenty-four hours is the record in this city. This is ample proof that the epidemic of influenza has about run its course. As previously stated in the Gazette everything is in readiness for the reopening of the churches Sunday and the reopening of the schools and other places Monday. They were closed because of the prevalence of the epidemic.

PROCLAIMS DAILY PRAYER

Governor Davis Asks People to Devote Each Day at Noon a Period For Intercession.

Governor Westmoreland Davis, at the request of the religious section of the Virginia council of defense yesterday issued the following proclamation:

"Whereas, there are those in foreign lands fighting and dying that human liberty may remain the heritage of the world and those at home loyally serving and sacrificing that those abroad may have the strength and courage to perform their monumental and autocracy that leads to unjust and iniquitous wars, and

"Whereas, in such times of stress and general need the human heart instinctively turnes toward Almighty God beseeching his aid for those who are partakers in the struggle, seeking for light whereby to comprehend the issues that are involved and to see the path of proper duty praying for a righteous peace that will end the sacrificing and the sorrow, and hoping for the coming of a time of universal brotherhood under the Great Father

"Now, theerfore, I, Westmoreland Davis, the governor of Virginia, do proclaim each day at noon a season of prayer some moments to be spent invoking God's favor on our cause. His help for our fighting and our working forces. His comfort for those of us who grieve for loved ones sacrificed in our holy spirit; and I request that church and school bells be rung and factory whistles blown at the noon hour to usher in this period, and that men and women and children stop awhile from their usual occupations and singly or in groups communs with their Maker, praying for those objects which are herein set forth.

Given under my hand and under the lesser seal of the commonwealth at Richmond this twenty-ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the one hundred and forty-second year of the commonwealth."

INTERVENTION ASKED

Austria-Hungary Sends Note Through New Foreign Minister Asking Armistice.

Vienna, via Basel, Switzerland, Oct. 30.—Austria-Hungary, through her new foreign minister, Count Andressy, has sent the following note to Secretary of State Lansing, requesting the Secretary's intervention with President Wilson for an immediate armistice on all fronts and for the commencement of peace negotiations:

"Immediately after having taken direction of the ministry of foreign affairs and after the dispatch of the official answer to your note of October 18, 1918, by which you were abel to see that we accept all the points and principles, aid done by President Wilson in his various declarations and are in complete accord with the efforts of President Wilson in his various declarations and are in complete accord with the efforts of President Wilson to prevent future wars and to create a league of nations, we have taken preparatory measures in order that Austrians and Hungarians may be able, accordinlg to their own desire and without being in any way hindered, to make a decision as to their future organization and to rule it.

"Since the accession to power of Emperor King Charles his immovable purpose has been to bring an end to the war. More than ever this is the desire to the sovereign of all the Austro-Hungarian peoples, who acknowledged that their future destiny can only be accomplished in a pacific word, by being freed from all disturbances, privations, and sorrows of war.

"This is way I address you directly, Mr. Secretary of State, praying that you will have the goodness to intervene with the President of the United States in order that in the interest of humanity, as in the interest of all those who live in Austria-Hungary, an immediate armistice may be concluded on all fronts, and for an overture that immediately negotiations for peace will follow."

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear wife, daughter and sister, Mrs. Helen L. Kendrick, who died October 13, 1918.

Dearest Helen, thou hast left us,
We thy loss most deeply feel;
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrow heal.

In our hearts we feel the sorrow,
Of the loss of one we loved,
But not one can heal this burden
But the one who is above.

Home at last, thy labor done,
Safe and blest the victory won,
Jordan passed, from pain set free,
Angels now have welcomed thee.

By her husband, mother, father sisters and brothers.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends for their kind sympathy and beautiful floral tributes at the death of our wife, daughter and sister, Helen Louise Kendrick. By her husband, mother, father, sisters and brother.

FOOD AND TOBACCO WIN

While Realizing They Were Victims of Shabby Trick, Rations Looked Far Better Than Dirty Trench.

With the American Forces Northwest of Verdun, Sunday, Oct. 30.—Americans now count among their prisoners fifty-one members of the Second German Landwehr, who are the most sadly disillusioned men from the German Emperor's army. The men still are convinced that they were played a shabby trick in being taken prisoner, though they are quickly becoming reconciled to their lot by their generous rations of food nad tobacco.

The Germans for several days had been coming unarmed out of their trenches, creeping forward to a point midway between the two lines, where they had been given bread and tobacco by the Americans. Their donors, they told an American intelligence officer today, wore crosses on their shoulders.

The other day when thy came over they were told that the next time each man would receive five sacks of tobaco instead of one sack. The opportunity was too good to be lost, and instead of groups of three, four and five, as heretofore, fifty-one men came in a group, eager for the tobacco and food.

The Germans were hospitality received at the customary rendezvous split into small groups and invited to come to another spot where the distribution would take place. That spot proved to be the intelligence office of the American division, where the Landwehrs weer informed that they were prisoners.

The Germans indignantly demanded to be sent back to their lines immediately together with their rations of five sacks of tobacco and bread. For a long time they could not be induced to say why they had been basely betrayed, but they gradually came to renounce their demand that they be returned, especially when they saw teh treatment accorded by the American soldiers to them and to the other prisoners. The Landwehrs will receive their extra rations as per promise.

FRENCH TO PROTEST TO BERLIN

Immediate Return of Civilians Taken From Laon Demanded.

Paris, Oct. 30.—The French Government has protested to Germany concerning the carrying away by force of civilian residents of Laon and has informed Germany that the repatriation of German civilians from France will be stopped unless the Laon civilians are returned immediately to the keeping of the French Government.

The action of the Germans in carrying off the civilians of Laon, including Mayor Ermant, was in violation of the agreement concluded between France and Germany last April. The Germans also carried away 300 French civilians from Furnet.

LYS DRIVE WAS COSTLY

Germans Lost 14,000 Killed, 80,000 Wounded and Missing.

London, Oct. 30.—German losses in their unavailing offensive in the Lys river salient last summer were 14,000 killed, 6000 prisoners, and about 80,00 wounded, and missing, according to an authoriative calculation.

The Germans, in June, prepared a great offensive, and by the end of July had brought up enormous quantities of ammunition. The dumps extended to a depth of 15 miles. In one area of five miles by three miles, the Germans abandoned 1500 tons of ammunition.

ALLIES' PEACE TERMS

Fixed Determination to Render Germany Utterly Powerless From a Military Standpoint.

It is the fixed determination of the Allied military commanders to render Germany utterly powerless from a military standpoint, if she accepts the terms of the armistice to be laid down in answer to the latest German note and soon to be announced not only to the Government in Berlin but to the world at large.

In fact the acceptance of these terms will constitute absolute and unconditional surrender. It will place the Allies in a position to impose upon Germany whatever peace program they may finally decide upon between themselves, by making it impossible for her to again resume hostilities without inviting annihilation at the hands of the enemies.

Here are the leading terms of the armistice, as they stand at this moment.

1. Germany is to withdraw her armies from occupied territory in France, Belgium, Russia and Roumania and must do it within a time to be specified by Marshal Foch.

2. Not only must her armies in France and Belgium retire to their own frontier, but they must drop back of the river at all points, leaving the whole of the area between her frontier and the Rhine unprotected, if not actually in the hands of the Allied armies.

3. The whole chain of German fortresses facing the line of France and including Metz and Strassburg, are to be occupied and garrisoned by Allied armies.

4. Germany is to release every Allied soldier held prisoner of war, but the Allies are not to release any Germans held prisoner until the work of reconstruction in Belgium and Northern France is completed.

5. Germany is to surrender all submarines in the Mediterranean and is to surrender one of every type of U-boat now in her service.

6. The German armies are to be disarmed through the loss of all their ordnance, light and heavy, but it is not clear yet whether this will include the side arms of the enemy troops.

7. The German armies must be demobilized except to such extent as may be necessary for her Government to police the country.

There are some other questions which have been discussed, it is learned, in connection with the armistice, but as most of them affect Austria and Turkey rather than Germany, it is unlikely that they will be included in any terms to which Germany must subscribe if she is to have peace. The most important of these questions is the opening of the Dardanelles. This is Turkish property and will be the subject of consideration when the time comes to deal with her.

A big Oakland touring car belonging to Leo McKenney, this city, was wrecked late last night while coming from Washington when an automobile driven by colored men collided with it on Johnson's Hill, Alexandria county. Mr. McKenney was cut about the head and face and other occupants of the car were bruised up. Mr. McKenney's machine is a total loss. Following the accident Mr. McKenney came to this city and his injuries were dressed by Dr. E. A. Gorman.

THE REVENGE OF HISTORY

President Wilson's insistence that the Allies cannot discuss peace with the present German Government, as it represents "the military masters and monarchical autocrats," has called attention to the attitude of Bismarck in 1871 when France, owing to his dissimulation in bringing on the Franco-Prussian war, lay prostrate at the feet of Prussian autocracy. France was then begging for reasonable terms of peace and for an armistice to allow of an opportunity for arranging terms of such a character.

Dr. Moritz Busch,, who was for twenty-five years in close official and private intercourse with Bismarck, tells us in his celebrated work, "Bismarck—Some Secret Passages of His History," how this great Chancellor, well-named the "Apostle of Blood and Iron," hooted the French peace proposals. Dr. Busch informs us that Bismarck gave him notes for an article in the Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, the Chancellor's semi-official organ, as follows:

The first condition upon which the chancellor of the federation insisted in speaking to the various persons who have desired to negotiate with him respecting peace was the election of an Assembly representing the will of France. He addressed the same demand to the emissaries of Republics, the Imperialists, etc., desires to grant all possible facilities for thus consulting the wishes of the population. The form of government is a matter of entire indifference to him. But we can deal only with a real government recognized by the nation."

The Paris government of that day in its dire necessity kept on endeavoring to secure an armistice. Bismarck then handed Dr. Busch another sketch from which to prepare an article for the Press.

"We are carrying on war not with a view to the permanent occupation of France, but to secure a peace on the conditions we have laid down. For that reason we desire to negotiate with a government which represents the will of France, and whose declarations and concessions will bind France as well as ourselves. The present government has not that character. It must be confirmed by a National Assembly, or replaced by another government. A general election is necessary for that purpose."

A convention, as all familiar with that period knew, was held on the 28th of January, 1871, and concluded between Bismarck and Jules Favre when Bismarck dictated the following:

"Germany has secured the right to see that a public authority is established, which will possess the attributes necessary to enable it to negotiate peace in the name of France. If Germany is denied the right to negotiate for peace with the whole nation the Armistice Convention would therefore become null and void."

Is it possible that President Wilson, who is a great student of history, is skilfully bringing home to the German Autocrats of the present day, placed in similar circumstances as the France they trod underfoot almost forty-eight years ago by the action of Bismarck the real power behind the Prussian King, the Kaiser's grandfather? At any rate the President rests his case, as the spokesman of the Allies, on Bismarck's statement. We can deal only with a real government recognized by the people. Germany is complaining today, or rather its autocracy is so doing, because President Wilson insists on a real popular government to deal with. Truly France, especially of the allied power against Germany, has her revenge today. The Kaiser's trickery to preserve himself must fail, and have the deaf ear of the Allied Powers turned to it. According to Bismarck's dictum, with the tables turned, he and his minions must go, the German people may negotiate after an honest general election enables them to do so, or the stern but eternally right sentence of "Absolute Surrender" must be carried out to the full letter of the law.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S MOTHER

It may not be known to many that the mother of President Wilson was born at Carlisle, the county town of Cumberland, England. It is a very ancient city, only eight miles from the Scottish border, and is a great railway center, well known to tourists in traveling from England to Scotland. One of the most interesting events in connection with the history of the old Cathedral was the marriage of Sir Walter Scott to Miss Charlotte Charpentier, the daughter of a French refugee, in 1797. And now shortly the Lowther Street Congregational Church of that old English city will become famous on account of a tablet, which is to be placed on the outside wall of that edifice, containing the following inscription:

"The mother of President Woodrow Wilson was born at Carlisle. Her father, the Rev. Thomas Woodrow, was minister of this church from February 1820 to June 1835."

THE GERMAN RETREAT

The horrors of the German retreat from France and Belgium equal in some ways the horrors of the German advance. Thousands of French women, children and old men have been left homeless and foodless in the abandoned regions of France, without roofs to cover their heads, clothes to cover their nakedness or bread to keep from famishing. In Belgium armies of beggared refugees have been driven to seek, like paupers, an asylum in Holland, where they can at least beg their bread without fear of murder and sudden death. In Brussels 175,000 refugees are sleeping in the parks and subsisting on whatever they can find. All males from 16 to 50 are being "removed." In Bruges, where the Germans were reported to have behaved with startling moderation in their leavetaking, houses were stripped of furniture and pictures, and factories left industrial wrecks.

As an exchange observes, the ruling passion of frightfulness and theft is still strong in death. Even as the criminal marches toward the dock for trial, he plunders and outrages all who come in his way.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

Until Heaven offers Peace to unrepentant Hell, until the Almighty invites Satan to a peace parley and to sit beside Him on the throne and rule the universe, we would be traitors to civilization and to God Himself to grant peace to an uncrushed, unrepentant, unpunished Germany. Peace for Germany without full punishment would be a premium upon crime and an endorsement of all Germany's fearful shedding of blood. It would, moreover, prove that we are poltroons and cowards and lack the moral force to punish criminals, if they are criminals of high degree.

The world must crush Germanism in this war or eventually be crushed by Germanism. There is no middle ground, and he who advocates peace on any other basis is false to all civilization.—(Manufacturers Record.

I couldn't rest after I went to bed, my back ached so badly, and in the morning I could hardly dress myself. I felt weak and tired and my kidneys acted irregularly. My head ached, too. NEWS OF THE DAY

The resistance of the Austrians against the British in the Italian theatre appears to be weakening, according to an official communication issued in London last night. The British Tenth Army continues its advance east of the Piave river.

For the first time in its history Annapolis, Md., has a curfew law. The ordinance was passed Monday night by the city council and became effective immediately. It provides that all girls under 16 and all boys under 14 must be off the streets and away from public places by 9 p. m. A extra half hour of grace is to allowed during the summer.

Directors of the United States Steel Corporation, at their quarterly meeting in New York yesterday, reduced the "extra" dividend on the common shares from the $3 dollar rate, effective since the first quarter of 1917, to $2. The regular distributions of 1 1-4 per cent on the common stock, and 1 3-4 per cent on the preferred, were voted as usual.

Turkey has independently presented peace proposals to the entente nations, according to a report from Constantinople forwarded to Copenhagen. The negotiations are expected to end soon, it is added. A dispatch from Athens says rioting has broken out at Constantinople and Smyrna. At both cities Germans were attacked.

A brigade of Roumanian infantry has been organized in Siberia to fight with entente troops. The unit is composed of Roumanians of Austria-Hungary, who, the message said, were taken prisoners by the Russians in the early days of the war and sent to Siberia as prisoners. Roumanians of Austria-Hungary also are fighting under the allied command in France and Italy.

An exciting sitting took place in the Spanish Cortes courts, according to a dispatch from Madrid. Count Romanones, the minister of public instruction, condemned the unrestricted neutral policy of the Spanish government and other orators spoke in a similar vein. Count Romanones asserted that Spain should adopt a proally policy. He added that if Spain wanted to enjoy a lasting peace she must declare her position without hesitation.

News reaching Asheville, N. C., from Brevard is to the effect that more than 2,000 negro soldiers with white officers who are working in Pisgah forest, somewhere in the neighborhood of "Pink Beds," have been cut off from all supplies by the high waters, and efforts are being made to send supplies from other nearby points. A number of mules have been drowned. Many houses have been washed away, but no lives have been lost, according to the latest reports.

Insure the home NOW—don't delay another day. This is the season in which most fires occur. Insuring through this agency means ABSOLUTE PROTECTION at regular rates.

Seventy-six new cases of influenza were reported to the health department of Richmond yesterday, showing that the ailment is gradually abating. Efforts are being made to have the churches and theaters to open Monday, but Health Officer Roy Flanigan is not yet willing to accede to the request, declaring he desires to be certain the epidemic has run its course.

Twenty new cases of influenza, seven of pneumonia and four deaths in the 24 hours previous to this report shows a continued improvement in the influenza situation in Lynchburg. The deaths now have totaled 253, of which 200 have been in the city. The epidemic has improved so in the last day or two that the city is arranging to close St. Andrew's Hospital, which was opened for the emergency.

The Norfolk health department today, following a week of steady improvement in the Spanish influenza, epidemic, announced that the order closing theaters, churches, schools, barber shops, poolrooms and public meetings of any character would be raised Friday. By special permission theaters will be allowed to operate Thursday night. All public school pupils must undergo examination by physicians for symptoms of influenza. Only two new cases of the disease have been reported during the last 24 hours, and no deaths .

In the home of L. McDaniels, Louisa county, Friday, an unusual accident occurred which might have resulted very seriously. An old cannon ball, a relic of the war between the States, supposed to be harmless, had been around the house for many years. Friday morning the mother and children were in a room with a small blaze in the open fireplace. One of the children rolled the ball into the blaze. In a few seconds it exploded, blowing off a portion of the roof of the house. The mother nad children escaped with severe burns and a terrific shock.

THROTTLING OF MILITARY

Federal Council Accepts Reichstag Action That Caused Ludendorff to Retire in Dudgeon.

Copenhagen, Oct. 30.—The German Federal Council has approved the bill amending the Imperial Constitution in the form as adopted by the Reichstag, according to a Berlin telegram.

The Reichstag on Saturday amended the Constitution by placing the military authorities under control of the civil government. The measure was adopted by a large majority. The retirement of General Ludendorff has been reported as having been due to the passage of the measure by the Reichstag.

Paris, Oct. 30.—Extremely important decisions were taken at the meeting of the Crown Council held under the presidency of Emperor William at Berlin, on Saturday, says a dispatch from Zurich to Le Journal.

The greatest agitation prevails in the Reichstag, where groups of deputies, the message adds, are sitting continuously. Considerable nervousness, it is said, prevails in German military circles as a result of the decisions reached at the Crown Council. The German Government, it is declared, is determined to resort to extreme measures.

Washington, D. C, Oct. 30.—The German military party is putting out a story that a Bolshevik uprising is threatened in Germany, according to reports reaching the State Department today from Switzerland. These reports are being circulated in Switzerland and Holland by German agents and newspapers. The evident intent of the reports, it is believed here, is to persuade the Allies not to make too drastic terms with Germany in the peace settlements.

Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price, without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in,—and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

ON TO BERLIN

Rev. Wm. H. Hudnut, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Youngstown, O., contributes the following to the Manufacturers' Record:

It will cost you dear to continue
To fight on till freedom is won;
It will take all the manhood that's in you
To wipe up the ground with the Hun.

There are many who would pause with half measures,
Would halt the offensive half won,
Would squander no more of our treasures,
Would parley peace terms with the Hun.

Why add to the rolls of the wounded?
Why lengthen the lists of the dead
When the fair fields of France are now mounded
With the graves of our men who have bled?

But we seek not a peace that is bartered,
We're the Wrath of God against Sin.
Surrender's the penalty chartered;
World Peace must be signed in Berlin.

We've millions more men for the battle
We've billions more gold that we'll pay—
Enough of this peace parley prattle,
For judgment we fight and we pray.

VANDALISM OF HUNS

Old Wooden Statue is Chipped to Pieces With Knives—Embroidery Used as Kitchen Cloths.

London, Oct. 30.—Perry Robinson gives details of the manner in which he found the beautiful house in Bruges, belonging to an Englishman named Humphrey Page, which had been occupied by German submarine officers. He says:

"That the submarine officers who converted it into a pig sty should have stolen whatever they knew to be of value is no more than one has learned to expect, but what amazes one is the brutal vandalism and bestiality with which they left among the fragments of broken furniture and objects of art upon the floor articles of women's clothing, feather boas and embroidered gauze scarfs and other evidences of orgies which they held with their female companions. One would at least have hidden or burned these things.

"Of a series of valuable old prints they would take four or five, replacing them perhaps in the frames with pictures of nude women from German periodicals, and leave the others.

"A few oil paintings out of many which did not please their gross tastes they left obviously unaware of their value.

"The beautiful tiles lining the fireplaces, because they did not recognize their beauty ,they have pried out from their setting and broken up apparently with hammers. Panels of an old Chinese cabinet, which could easily be taken as panels have all had bits of ivory and mother of pearl knocked out with knives, just in the way a child would do if attracted by their glitter, and the rest of the panels are left. Beautiful embroidery, undeniably worth stealing, has been torn in bits and used as kitchen cloths, and a charming Louis Quinze table, having in early days been taken to the servants' quarters to be used as an orderlies wash stand, was overlooked.

"An old seventeenth century wooden statue they just chipped to pieces with axes and knives. Where the arrangements of the house did not suit them, and they wanted a shorter way from one room to another, they merely knocked a hole in the wall. The panels and moldings of the walls and ceilings are defaced and the glass broken in a way that can only have been done by missiles, which is, perhaps, largely explained by orderlies of how, after their orgies, their masters would stay in bed most of the following day, dead drunk.

"Mixed with the litter of broken things which covers the floors is an endless quantity of private papers, letters, bits of male and female clothing ,etc.

WILL NOT COME HERE

Future American Population Will be Latin-Slav-Mongolian in Consequence.

Amsterdam, Oct. 30.—Because of America's intense hatred for everything German, says the Leipziger Neueste Nachrichten, Germans will henceforth fight shy of emigrating to the United States, and as a result that nation's population in generations to come will be the Latin-Slav-Mongolian admixture.

"Owing to the loss of life caused by the war, the migration from Anglo-Saxon countries will similarly cease and these brown and yellow elements will eventually become paramount in American politics as in industrial life," says the paper.

"Thus America's face will before very long be that of a hybrid, a blend of yellow, brown and white. Her Germanic complexion will gradually fade away, and in appearance she will be more Asiatic than European.

"This constitutes the punishment of fate upon a nation which flippantly embarks on a war for which there is not the least justification.
